Introduction to delineation of appearance and character in natal astrology. The following document is a hand-written analysis of Billy Graham made using the principles of medieval predictive astrology. The discipline of natal astrology focuses on the fate of an individual based on a horoscope cast for the moment of birth. Within natal astrology, the 1st house occupying the eastern horizon at birth describes the native: physical vitality, appearance, and character. Between the Hellenistic and Medieval eras several specialized models have been developed to assess these characteristics. They include longevity (vitality and length of life), physiognomy (form and shape of the face and body), victor of the chart (overall life purpose), manners (social conduct including ethical behavior), and temperament (elemental mix of fire, earth, air, and water with applications in medical astrology). Prior research has presented models and results for longevity (A Rectification Manual: The American Presidency, Chapter 4) and physiognomy (Astrological Physiognomy: History and Sources & Astrological Physiognomy: Empirical Tests of the Leo Rising Decan). This paper presents one of forty horoscopes chosen to populate an initial data set to investigate the victor.

Victor of the Chart. Included are two competing models for computing the victor of the chart said to be the single most powerful planet in the horoscope. According to Plato's follower Porphyry, by configuration in the natal horoscope the planet signifying the victor of the chart shows the life choice made by the soul prior to incarnation. Plato explains the details of his soul model in The Myth of Er found in the closing pages of his work The Republic. Porphyry and his peer Antiochus offer specific rules for determining the victor of the chart. The method of Antiochus/Porphyry is compared to a later method for determining the victor suggested by the Jewish Rabbi Abraham ben Meir Ibn Izra who was an active philosopher and astrologer in the 12th century. For a discussion of these two models, see the companion paper Victor of the Chart: Testing Methods of Antiochus/Porphyry and Ibn Ezra which serves as a key to what is presented here.

Manners. Plato was not alone among Greek philosophers in conceiving models for the soul. Aristotle's model of vegetative, sensitive, and intellective soul levels assigned respectively to the plant, animal, and human kingdoms was taken up by Ptolemy who found a correspondence between the sensitive and intellective soul and Moon and Mercury in the natal horoscope. Configuration of the Moon and Mercury, with special emphasis given to their rulers, is a second method for analyzing the soul. Ptolemy introduces this model in Tetrabiblos III.13 "Of the Quality of the Soul". Subsequent authors refer to this model as "Significators of the Soul" or "Manners". A summary template for the Moon and Mercury is presented in the paper and will be further developed in future versions.

Billy Graham (November 7, 1918 – living)

Born William Franklin Graham II, Billy Graham is a Christian evangelist whose lifetime media exposure has exceeded 2.2 billion. Reaching audiences through live radio and television broadcasts, his crusades have resulted in over 2.5 million people accepting Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. Known as "Pastor to the Presidents," Billy Graham formed close ties to most American Presidents witnessed by multiple White House visits and a presence at many Presidential inaugurations and funerals. Outside of the United States, Graham was the first evangelist to speak in Eastern Europe; instrumental, according to some, in the reawakening of religious faith in the years immediately preceding the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989. On numbers alone, the emergence of Billy Graham in the early 1950s should accord Graham a similar position as Jonathan Edwards, Charles Finney, and D. L. Moody did to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Great Awakenings in American religious history. Graham's arms-length treatment from mainstream religious historians undoubtedly stems from his acceptance of the Bible as the literal word of God which is at odds with beliefs of mainstream Protestant faiths including the Methodists, Presbyterians, and Episcopalians. By a minority of contemporary historians, Graham is tentatively assigned a position in the 4th Great Awakening of the 1960s and 1970s whose representatives includes evangelicals, fundamentalists, and pentacostalists. Relative to mainstream Protestant beliefs, each of these religious sects focuses more on a person's belief and acceptance of God/Jesus in contrast to social welfare concerns which were the dominant focus of Protestant churches during the 1st half of the 20th century.

Prior to Graham's explosive success in his 1949 Los Angeles Crusade, Graham's colleague Chuck Templeton accused him of intellectual suicide for his acceptance of the literal accuracy of the Bible. A fellow preacher in the Youth for Christ organization to which Graham belonged; Templeton challenged Graham to follow him to the Princeton Theological Seminary in order to deepen his Biblical understanding. Finding that he drew more religious converts by statements such as 'The Bible says' or 'God says', Graham admitted he had no time to devote to investigate Biblical accuracy based on doubts raised by scientific or other evidentiary standards. Graham claimed his decision to dismiss doubts on Biblical literacy gave his preaching power and authority and improved his credibility with audiences because of his forthright demeanor. He never looked back. Besides charges of intellectual suicide lobbed by Templeton in the late 1940s, Graham's critics have centered on his relationships with politicians who used their relationship with Graham for manipulative political purposes. Graham's naiveté in his judgment of Richard Nixon's character is a case in point. Described by Graham's wife Ruth as the most difficult personal event of his lifetime, Graham's shock upon reading the edited transcripts of Nixon's tape recordings in May 1974 marked a new resolve to keep political relationships at arm's length.

In contrast to financial and sex scandals suffered by modern television preachers including Jim Bakker, Jimmy Swaggart, and Robert Schuller, Billy Graham has maintained high standards in his financial affairs and personal conduct. From the earliest days of his ministry, he eliminated so-called 'love offerings' and assigned the role of financial oversight to an independent Board of Directors. The closest the Billy Graham Evangelical Association came to suffering scrutiny for its financial affairs was the 1977 revelation that one of Graham's related organizations made several investment and financial transactions which raised questions of standards of fiduciary conduct. The problems were relatively minor and in 1978 Graham reasserted his financial conduct by helping to establish the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability.

Rectification

Available Birth Data

Astrodatabank lists an AA-rated birth time of 3:30 PM, quoted BC/BR listing the Gauquelin Book of American Charts as the source. Biographer William Martin states that Graham was born "as the light began to fade from the late-autumn sky" (William Marin, A Prophet with Honor: The Billy Graham Story, New York: William Morrow and Company, 1991, p. 55.).

Both the 3:30 PM time and Martin's observation are consistent with Aries rising with Sun/Scorpio in the 8th house prior to sunset.

Stage I. Determine the Ascendant Sign

With existing birth data, the goal of Stage I rectification is to confirm the stated Ascendant sign.

Firdaria and Configuration of the Chart

Graham's public success as an evangelist during Mars subperiods confirms a diurnal birth.

Venus-Mars. Los Angeles Crusade held 25-Sep-1949 to 20-Nov-1949.
Mercury-Mars. Southern Cross Crusade to Australia and New Zealand, 15-Feb to 31-May-1959.
Moon-Mars. New York City Crusade and major media exposure, June 1969.
Saturn-Mars. Published best-selling book "How to be Born Again," 1977.

Based on these observations, I agree with the choice of Aries rising.

Stage II. Determine the Ascendant's range within 1-4 degrees

Physiognomy

One problem with the 3:30 PM horoscope lies with the failure of the first decan of Aries rising to account for Graham's facial shape. Were this rising decan correct, Mars/Sagittarius as rising decan ruler would give Graham a longer face and hair with greater length. Instead, Graham exhibits a prominent lower jaw, common to fixed signs, as well as an overall intensity consistent with the Sun/Scorpio as ruler of the 2nd rising decan of Leo.

Conclusion: 2nd Aries decan rising implies a birth time range of 3:43 PM to 4:10 PM.

Lots

Comparing dynamic activity for the following marriage lots computed for the final rectified time:

Lot of Marriage: 23PI34/6LI26
Lot of Marriage of Men a/c Hermes: 00CA25/29GE35

To events concerning his wife Ruth:

Late Spring 1941 – proposed marriage
13-Aug-1943. Wedding
Late September 1974. Major accident including brain trauma
14-Jun-2007. Death

Consider the following in support of the proposed rectification:

1940 solar return for year of proposal: srVenus 6LI33 conjunct antiscion of 1st lot.
1973 solar return for year of accident: srSouth Node 00CA49 conjunct 2nd lot with Moon 00AR25 at the bendings and Venus 1CP38 opposed the 2nd lot.
For the day of death, see d.s.a. Pluto 6LI25 conjunct antiscion of 1st lot.

Other measurements

With the North Node in the 9th of foreign lands, transits of the North Node to the angles have timed Graham's best-known crusades. This delineation thread is one I devote more time to in the next rectification stage.

Stage III. Determine the exact Degree and Minute of the Ascendant

Solar arc directions

18-Feb-1944. d.s.a. North Node conj MC
10-Jun-1944. c.s.a. MC conj North Node

This pair of directions form a quasi-sequence which follows the 2-Jan-1944 launch of his first radio program "Songs in the Night", includes the 5-Mar-1944 initial radio broadcast of his sermons preached at the Village Church, and increased Youth for Christ audiences including his 27-May-1944 downtown Chicago address to ~3000, the largest crowd to date.

26-Jun-1977. d.s.a. Venus conj MC
21-Jan-1979. c.s.a. MC conj Venus

The first Venus direction timed the exact publication date of the Charlotte Observer's expose on the financial and investment activities of one of Graham's subsidiaries. This is an exact delineation match to the superior conjunction of Venus in the 8th as judgment of scandalous investment activity. In 1979, no date found, Graham helped found the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability.

Model Summary

(for model details see www.regulus-astrology.com/research.html)

Physiognomy

Ascendant sign: Aries
Ascendant sign ruler: Mars/Sagittarius
Ascendant decan: Leo
Ascendant decan ruler: Sun/Scorpio
Planets in sign of rising decan: Saturn/Leo

Prominent lower jaw makes Graham's face square; consistent with Sun in a fixed sign ruling the fixed sign of Leo according to Willner's facial model.

Longevity: (living)

Releaser and kadukhudhāh. Figure is diurnal and Sun is preferred but disallowed as releaser because of a feminine sign placement in the 8th. Moon in the 9th is also disallowed. For a conjunctional figure, next candidate is the Ascendant which qualifies as its sign ruler Mars aspects by trine with Mars is his own bound. Jupiter is also the nocturnal triplicity ruler of the Ascendant and aspects by square aspect. The kadukhudhāh is most likely Mars or Jupiter.

Victor of the Chart: Mars/Sagittarius

Ibn Ezra's scoring favors Venus, Mars, and Jupiter with the 1507 version favoring Mars. Porphyry's 2nd stage selects Mercury, Mars, or Jupiter. Jupiter can be safely ruled out because of his retrograde station a few days before Graham's birth which destroys its power. Mercury/Scorpio scores well on solar phase and accounts for Graham's speaking abilities making a significant mark on his professional career. But Mercury is peregrine and has nothing to offer save reception by its bound ruler Saturn, from which Mercury separates. Mars/Sagittarius is the logical VOC and is a delineation match to Graham's fiery evangelism proclaimed in churches and while on foreign travels. Though the solar phase and cadent house position raises questions, consider Mars is in his own bound, is angular from the Lot of Fortune, and is amplified by conjunction to the North Node.
