Medieval Astrology Profile for Golda Meir

Introduction to delineation of appearance and character in natal astrology. The following document is a hand-written analysis of Gold Meir made using the principles of medieval predictive astrology. The discipline of natal astrology focuses on the fate of an individual based on a horoscope cast for the moment of birth. Within natal astrology, the 1st house occupying the eastern horizon at birth describes the native: physical vitality, appearance, and character. Between the Hellenistic and Medieval eras several specialized models have been developed to assess these characteristics. They include longevity (vitality and length of life), physiognomy (form and shape of the face and body), victor of the chart (overall life purpose), manners (social conduct including ethical behavior), and temperament (elemental mix of fire, earth, air, and water with applications in medical astrology). Prior research has presented models and results for longevity (A Rectification Manual: The American Presidency, Chapter 4) and physiognomy (Astrological Physiognomy: History and Sources & Astrological Physiognomy: Empirical Tests of the Leo Rising Decan). This paper presents one of forty horoscopes chosen to populate an initial data set to investigate the victor.

Victor of the Chart. Included are two competing models for computing the victor of the chart said to be the single most powerful planet in the horoscope. According to Plato's follower Porphyry, by configuration in the natal horoscope the planet signifying the victor of the chart shows the life choice made by the soul prior to incarnation. Plato explains the details of his soul model in The Myth of Er found in the closing pages of his work The Republic. Porphyry and his peer Antiochus offer specific rules for determining the victor of the chart. The method of Antiochus/Porphyry is compared to a later method for determining the victor suggested by the Jewish Rabbi Abraham ben Meir Ibn Izra who was an active philosopher and astrologer in the 12th century. For a discussion of these two models, see the companion paper Victor of the Chart: Testing Methods of Antiochus/Porphyry and Ibn Ezra which serves as a key to what is presented here.

Manners. Plato was not alone among Greek philosophers in conceiving models for the soul. Aristotle's model of vegetative, sensitive, and intellective soul levels assigned respectively to the plant, animal, and human kingdoms was taken up by Ptolemy who found a correspondence between the sensitive and intellective soul and Moon and Mercury in the natal horoscope. Configuration of the Moon and Mercury, with special emphasis given to their rulers, is a second method for analyzing the soul. Ptolemy introduces this model in Tetrabiblos III.13 "Of the Quality of the Soul". Subsequent authors refer to this model as "Significators of the Soul" or "Manners". A summary template for the Moon and Mercury is presented in the paper and will be further developed in future versions.

Golda Meir (May 3, 1898 – December 8, 1978)

Long before England's Margaret Thatcher, Golda Meir was known as the Iron Lady for her hardball political skills as a Labor Zionist leader, a fundraiser during Israel's independence movement, and an uncooperative participant in games of realpolitik played by US President Richard Nixon and US Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. At the urging of her party, she agreed to run for Prime Minister following the February 26, 1969 heart attack and death of Levi Eshkol.

During her tenure as Prime Minister, she witnessed the death of Egypt's Gamal Nasser (1970), the Black September attack on Israeli Athletes at the Munich Olympic Games (1972), Israel's tactical victory but strategic loss in the Yom Kippur War (1973), the death of Israeli founder David Ben Gurion (1973), and gains made by the Israeli right wing at the expense of her own Labor party culminating in her final resignation on April 10, 1974. In a frank interview after her death, she stated that she would have been happier to remain working on the Kibbutz when she first immigrated to Palestine in 1921. She did not believe her tenure as Prime Minister made any difference.

Born in Kiev, Ukraine, Golda Meir's family faced discrimination common to Jews living at Russia at the turn of the 20th century. The Kishinev pogrom of April 19, 1903 precipitated her family's emigration to the United States where they settled in Milwaukee in 1904. In the spring of 1913, Golda ran away from home to live with her sister Sheyna in Denver, Colorado. Through her sister's circle, she was exposed to a wider intellectual dialog of art and politics where she became radicalized to the ideas of the Zionist Movement. She married her husband Morris Meyerson six weeks after the November 2, 1917 Balfour Declaration; both later immigrated to Palestine in 1921. Their first two years spent working in a Kibbutz went well for Golda but not for her husband Morris who hated Kibbutz life. With their subsequent move to Tel Aviv, Golda Meir launched her political career as a Labor Zionist and never looked back. Her husband took a back seat to her political ambitions; as of 1938 Golda Meir asked for an unofficial separation and froze Morris Meyerson out of her life.

Immigration was a major theme of Meir’s political life, recalling her own difficulties as a Jew in hostile territory. Her attempts to promote Jewish immigration during the years of the British Mandate largely fell on deaf ears; following establishment of the State of Israel in 1948, she returned to immigration and oversaw hundreds of thousands of immigrants between 1949 and 1956 as Minister of Labor. One often neglected fact of Golda Meir's career was her fundraising trip to the United States in the months prior to Israel's May 14, 1948 Declaration of Independence which triggered an immediate war with the Arabs. Without weapons funded by Meir's fundraising activities, it is unlikely that Israel would have won their war of independence.

A contemporary of Prime Minister David Ben Gurion, Golda Meir's political fortunes were intertwined with Israel's founder though she was never afraid to attack Ben Gurion - sometimes viciously. She largely sidestepped his final distasteful chapter with the Lavon Affair and aligned herself with the newer generation of Moshe Dayan. Support of Dayan, with his strategic blunders prior to the Yom Kippur War, cost Meir her re-election and triggered the demise of the Labor Party. A day after her death on December 8, 1978, her right-wing rival Menachem Begin shared the Nobel Peace Prize with Anwar Sadat for Sadat's 1977 Knesset visit which launched the Israeli-Arab peace process.

Stage I. Determine the Ascendant Sign

Firdaria

The following events favor the diurnal sequence:

Major Venus. Ran away from home and lived with sister, age 15-17. Venus = sister.

Major Mercury. Following emigration to Israel in 1921 and two years living in a Kibbutz, Meir's work as an organizer for the Labor Zionist party is a match to Mercury (organizer) in Taurus (labor).

Major Saturn. At the onset of this period (starting 3-May-1938), Meir asked for an unofficial separation from her husband Morris, effectively freezing him out of her life. Difficulties during this period included the May 1939 British White Paper (effectively reversing promises made by the 2-Nov-1917 Balfour Declaration) and the Holocaust.

Major Jupiter. Meir's 22-April-1949 return to Israel after her unsuccessful stint as Israel's first Russian ambassador preceded the start of her Jupiter period by 11 days. Her work was initially directed towards settlement of Israeli immigrants; starting in 1956 she served as Israeli Foreign Minister.

© Copyright 2016. Regulus Astrology LLC. All Rights Reserved.

Major Mars. Marked by increased strife with Palestinians (PLO created January 1964) and Egypt (under Nasser). Israel's success in the 1967 Six Day War occurred during a Mars-Jupiter subperiod.

North Node. Elected Prime Minister.

South Node. Munich Massacre of Israeli Olympic athletes. Announced retirement at end of period.

Major Sun. Tactical victory but strategic loss in Yom Kippur War. Retirement.

Conclusion: Figure is Diurnal

Moon's Configuration

For a diurnal figure, there are three possible configurations of the Moon:

Moon applies to Jupiter
Moon separates from Jupiter and applies to Mars
Moon separates from Mars and applies to Saturn

As the out-of-sect malefic, the choler of Mars is accentuated. This is consistent with descriptions of Meir as abrasive and fits her moniker as the "Iron Lady" (iron ruled by Mars). Given the importance of her martial personality and Israeli wars to her life experience, either the 2nd or 3rd configurations of the Moon are reasonable. For diurnal figures, waxing Moon, Maternus does not like either of these configurations. For the 2nd, he predicts homelessness, slavery and a violent death. For the 3rd, he indicates misfortune, sadness, and the possibility of an evil death. Though she was admired in the West for her pre-Thatcher "Iron Lady" persona, privately she was not happy – going so far to say in a late interview that she would have rather stayed on the Kibbutz instead of moving to Tel Aviv in 1924 when she launched her political career. She believed her political life made no difference. These comments speak to melancholy of unrealized dreams, consistent with the Moon's separation from Mars and application to Saturn. This choice narrows the birth time range to 10:04 AM – 7:17 PM.

Physiognomy

Her moniker "Iron Lady" speaks to her masculine persona, her body type, and the influence of Mars/Aries on physiognomy. As an older adult, she could have easily passed as a man. But in her youth her facial type was ovate, suggesting the influence of planets in cardinal signs (Mars, Jupiter).

Left: 1914, Age 16; Right: undated by probably from the 1970s.

The best Ascendant sign which incorporates her facial and body type is Scorpio which rises at 6:02 PM. For a diurnal figure, the Ascendant falls in either the 1st decan of Scorpio or the first four degrees of the 2nd decan of Scorpio. After 13SC12 the Sun sets and the figure becomes nocturnal. As her body type did not have the thin, rail-like characteristics of Aries (which one would expect were the first decan of Scorpio to rise), an Ascendant degree range of 10SC00 to 13SC11 with Jupiter/Libra as ruling of the 2nd rising decan of Scorpio is the better match.

Configuration of Chart

Sun. Stepping back from the trial Ascendant, the first thing notable is the Sun's position on the 7th cusp. Sun/Taurus signifies Golda Meir's profession as Israeli Prime Minister at the end of her life.

Mercury. Her marriage to Morris on 24-Dec-1917 occurred at the start of the Major Mercury Firdaria period; note Mercury falls in the 7th. With his intellectual and artistic interests, Venus/Gemini as 7th house ruler can also be taken as a co-significator of her husband. Their failed marriage is consistent with Venus, 7th house ruler, applying to Mars, 1st house ruler without reception.

Mars/Lot of Fortune. Although primarily for her role as PM while on the world stage, Golda Meir's fundraising efforts in America in early 1948 prior to Israel's War of Independence were instrumental in supplying funds for acquisition of armaments. Without such funding, Israel would have likely suffered a loss to the Palestinians following Israel's May 1948 Declaration of Independence. Fundraising for armament purchases is consistent with Mars conjunct the Lot of Fortune, both in Aries.

Stage III. Determine the exact Degree and Minute of the Ascendant

With the physiognomy exercise able to narrow the Ascendant to within four degrees, I jump ahead to Stage III and identify the following directions consistent with a rectified Ascendant of 13SC02'16".

Solar Arc Directions

20-Apr-1903. dsa Mars conj POF.
Kishinev Pogrom, 19-Apr-1902.

2-Nov-1917. dsa Mercury square MC.
Balfour Declaration, exact date.

8-Nov-1959. dsa Mercury square POF.
Mapai election victory, 3-Nov-1959.

20-Jun-1963. dsa Saturn square Sun.
Ben-Gurion's "first" resignation, 16-Jun-1963.

6-Sep-1972. dsa MC opposed Mercury.
Munich Olympic Massacre, 5/6-Sep-1972.

16-Jan-1974. csa Sun opposed MC.
Surviving 31-Dec-1973 elections, Meir's refusal to terminate Moshe Dayan for his failure to prevent losses in the Yom Kippur War ended her public credibility.

Model Summary

(for model details see www.regulus-astrology.com/research.html)

Physiognomy

Ascendant sign: Scorpio
Ascendant sign ruler: Mars/Aries
Ascendant decan: Pisces
Ascendant decan ruler: Jupiter/Libra-rx

Meir's facial type is ovate which corresponds to cardinal signs. This is consistent with either Mars/Aries as sign ruler and Jupiter/Libra-rx ruling the 2nd rising decan

Longevity: 80y 7m 5d

Releaser and kadukhudhāh. Figure is diurnal (just barely) and Sun/7th qualifies as the releaser. Empirically this does not work well with death timed by the solar arc direction of the North Node to the lot of fortune within one month. Assume the setting Sun on the western horizon is excluded, next candidate is the Moon which is excluded for its 12th house whole sign placement. Figure is conjunctional so the Ascendant is next. Mars is cadent and does not aspect the Ascendant. Other triplicity lords Moon and Venus are also in aversion to the Ascendant. Mercury the bound lord aspects but is combust. Decan lord Jupiter is also in aversion. Next candidate is the Lot of Fortune. If the Lot of the Fortune is the releaser, then Mars/Aries is the kadukhudhāh. Mars grants his 66 major years. Mars is aspected by Venus and Jupiter. Compared to an actual lifespan of 80y 7m 5d, what works is Jupiter's addition of his 12 minor years to Mars' 66 major years for a longevity projection of 78 which is very close. Though Venus applies to Mars, she does so without reception. Jupiter/Libra/rx functions more like Jupiter/Aries which receives Mars by bound.

Victor of the Chart: Mars/Aries

Ibn Ezra's model favors Venus, Mars and Saturn. Porphyry's Stage I criteria differs by adding Mercury and dropping Saturn. Mars easily trumps the other candidates as it is in the sign of its rulership, in the strongest possible solar phase, and conjunct the Lot of Fortune.

Manners: Saturn-Venus or Venus.
