Medieval Astrology Profile for Joseph Goebbels

File History: Initial 31-Oct-2014; Tables Revised 17-Jun-2016

Introduction to delineation of appearance and character in natal astrology. The following document is a hand-written analysis of Joseph Goebbels, using the principles of medieval predictive astrology. The discipline of natal astrology focuses on the fate of an individual based on a horoscope cast for the moment of birth. Within natal astrology, the 1st house occupying the eastern horizon at birth describes the native: physical vitality, appearance, and character. Between the Hellenistic and Medieval eras several specialized models were developed to assess these characteristics. They include longevity (vitality and length of life), physiognomy (form and shape of the face and body), victor of the chart (overall life purpose), manners (social conduct including ethical behavior), and temperament (elemental mix of fire, earth, air, and water with applications in medical astrology). Prior research has presented models and results for longevity (A Rectification Manual: The American Presidency, Chapter 4) and physiognomy (Astrological Physiognomy: History and Sources & Astrological Physiognomy: Empirical Tests of the Leo Rising Decan).

Victor of the Chart. Included are two competing models for computing the victor of the chart said to be the single most powerful planet in the horoscope. According to Plato's follower Porphyry, the planet signifying the victor of the chart by configuration in the natal horoscope shows the life choice made by the soul prior to incarnation. Plato explains the details of his soul model in The Myth of Er found in the closing pages of The Republic. Porphyry and his peer Antiochus offer specific rules for determining the victor of the chart. The method of Antiochus/Porphyry is compared to a later method for determining the victor suggested by the Jewish Rabbi Abraham ben Meir ibn Ezra, a philosopher and astrologer active in the 12th century. For a discussion of these two models, see the companion paper Victor of the Chart: Testing Methods of Antiochus/Porphyry and Ibn Ezra, which serves as a key to what is presented here.

Manners. Plato was not alone among Greek philosophers in conceiving models for the soul. Aristotle's model of vegetative, sensitive, and intellective soul levels (assigned respectively to the plant, animal, and human kingdoms) was taken up by Ptolemy, who found a correspondence between the sensitive and intellective soul and Moon and Mercury in the natal horoscope. The configuration of the Moon and Mercury, with special emphasis given to their rulers, is a second method for analyzing the soul. Ptolemy introduces this model in Tetrabiblos III.13 "Of the Quality of the Soul." Subsequent authors refer to this model as the "Significators of the Soul" or "Manners." A summary template for the Moon and Mercury is presented in the paper and will be developed further in future versions.

Joseph Goebbels (October 29, 1897 – May 1, 1945)

Ranked consistently as one of the most important Nazi leaders after Adolph Hitler, Goebbels life calling was promoting the Nazi regime through publicity, propaganda, and media control of the state. From 1924, the year he joined the National Socialist German Worker's Party until his death from suicide in 1945, Goebbel's life was closely intertwined with Adolph Hitler as one of his closest supporters. Lifetime highlights include the book burning of 10-May-1933 (directly organized), Kristallnacht 9-Nov-1938 (encouraged), and what is known as the 'Total War' speech given at the Berlin Sportpalast on 18-Feb-1943 which remains one of the most incendiary martial speeches of the 20th century still studied today in the field of mass crowd psychology.

For a propagandist like Goebbels, I depart from a concise written biography and suggest students view his Berlin Sportpalast speech as a starting point.

Stage I. Determine the Ascendant sign

With an AA-rated birth time the objective of Stage I rectification is to confirm the Ascendant sign.

Configuration of the Chart

- By way of synastry to Adolf Hitler's horoscope, Leo rising (Goebbels) is conjunct Hitler's Midheaven (Hitler's career); Goebbels, Scorpio/stellium/4th end of life (Goebbels) is conjunct Hitler's Ascendant (physical body). Goebbels finds his life purpose in Hitler's career. Goebbels ends his life next to Hitler's body where his remains are partially burned.

- Lot of Fortune/Gemini/11th house of organizations and 2nd from the 10th (money from the King) is consistent with Goebbel's career earnings from his position as the King's publicist.

NOTES ON COMBUSTION This is a very creepy posthumous direction which sheds light on the effects of combustion on planets. Traditional texts state that planets within 7 degrees of the Sun are combust and damaged from the Sun's heat. Some authors offer an exception in cases when the planet configured with the Sun receives the Sun by sign which is the case here.

How this configuration played out for Goebbels: he died on 1-May-1945 after his wife died by cyanide/suicide and Goebbels ordered an officer to shoot himself (accounts vary slightly). The bodies of Goebbels and his wife were burned but only partially on account of a lack of available petrol. Remains were repeatedly buried and exhumed by the Soviets who finally buried the remains at the Soviet SMERSH facility in Magdeburg on 21-Feb-1946. In 1970, KGB director Yuri Andropov ordered the remains destroyed. On 4-Apr-1970, remains were exhumed, reburned, crushed, and thrown into the river.

The ability of the Sun to damage Mercury (Goebbel's victor) by burning is evident at both Goebbel's death in 1945 and secondary cremation in 1970. However, the inability of the Sun to completely destroy Mercury (as Mars receives the Sun) is demonstrated by only partial burning after death in 1945. The ghoulish photograph of Goebbel's burnt corpse, with his left hand and fingers contracted (significators of Mercury), demonstrate the resilience of Mercury after death.

Model Summary

(for model details see www.regulus-astrology.com/research.html)

Physiognomy

Ascendant sign: Leo
Ascendant sign ruler: Sun/Scorpio
Ascendant decan: Sagittarius
Ascendant decan ruler: Jupiter/Libra
Planets/Nodes placed in the Ascendant sign or decan: South Node/Leo in Ascendant.
Saturn/Sagittarius in sign of rising decan. Facial shape is not the thuggish square of Scorpio because placement of the South Node in the Ascendant negates effects of Ascendant sign and ruler on physiognomy. Jupiter/Libra, ruler of the rising decan, grants an ovate shape but not the compressed ovate of Willner's physiognomy model. In fact the ovate appears elongated which occurs from the Sagittarius influence of the rising decan.

Longevity: 47y 6m 0d

Releaser and kadukhudhāh. Figure is nocturnal and Moon is preferred. Moon is allowed in the 5th house by quadrant houses but not in the 6th by whole sign houses. If not the Moon, then Sun/Scorpio/4th by both house systems qualifies. If the Moon, then either bound ruler Mercury or exaltation/triplicity ruler Mars as kadukhudhah. Given the Moon's close aspect to Mercury, as well as Mercury as victor, shift the odds to Mercury as kadukhudhah. If the Sun is releaser, then sign and bound ruler Mars is the kadukhudhah. Both Mercury and Mars are combust though Mars receives the Sun which mitigates the effect of combustion a/c to some authors. Mercury is also received by Mars and both planets are in each other's bounds. This is really a judgment call but I would lean towards Mercury as Mercury's status as the victor is a key factor. Mercury grants 76 major years but deductions are not obvious. Do the Nodes deduct years because Mercury is at the bendings? Not sure. At the very least, the effects of combustion to shorten lifespan but textbooks do not offer consistent rules for deductions when the kadukhudhah is combust other than to say that life would be short.

Victor of the Chart: Mercury/Scorpio

Ibn Ezra's method favors Mars; Porphyry's method identifies either Mercury or Mars. Empirically, Goebbel's life calling as a wartime propagandist is an easy match to Mercury as victor; confirmed by major life events occurring during Mercury Firdaria periods. But whether or not we could predict Mercury over Mars in a blind reading is difficult to say considering both planets are combust.

Manners: Mars or Saturn-Mars.
